

Native Workforce Partners

CENTERING TRIBAL SOVEREIGNTY IN WORKFORCE SYSTEMS

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 2026
3:30 PM - 4:30 PM/EST
ZOOM WEBINAR

Origins of the NWP

★ Ysleta del Sur, TX

MAP KEY

- ★ 166 Program
- ★ 477 Program

Governance Structure

Location:
• Albuquerque
• Farmington
• Gallup

6201 Uptown Blvd. NE Suite 203, Albuquerque
www.npacnm.org

*Strategies for Engaging the State of NM:
Strengthening workforce opportunities for tribal communities and the State.*

New Mexico Native American Workforce Partners Vision for the Work

Bernadette
Panteah

*477 Co-Chair
Pueblo of Zuni*

Rosemary
Reano

*166 Co-Chair
Santo Domingo
Pueblo*

Tera
Frank

*Secretary
Native Professionals
Advancement Center*

Meryl Chee

*Website &
Communications Coordinator*

Philanthropy Filled the Gap

A heartfelt thank you to our funders, whose generosity provided the foundation for this project. To our tireless trainers and project managers, your expertise and guidance were invaluable. And to our consultants, your insights and problem-solving skills helped us navigate every challenge. Together, we made a difference.

Jason
Frohlichstein
Frohlichstein Inc.

Stephine Poston
Poston &
Associates, LLC.

Liz Gamboa
New Mexico
Community
Capital

Tobie Baker
Wright
LANL Foundation

Alvin Warren
LANL Foundation

Stephanie Owens
LANL Foundation

Henry Jake
Foreman
New Mexico
Community
Capital

Kristin Lueke
Frohlichstein Inc.

Elise Padilla
Elise Padilla
Consulting

Megan Elkins
W.K Kellogg
Foundation

Ron Martinez Looking Elk
Elise Padilla
Consulting

Vlad Chaloupka
Videographer

Adrian Tsosie
Coat of Colors

AHE'HEE'
ELAHKWA!
NAY'TRA!
THANK YOU